Tired of spending so much time on a less than perfect look?

From this...

You wouldn't expect a Do-It-Yourself email company to create a winning recipe for your menu, right? So why do let them get away with expecting you to create winning email campaigns?

BizGrader fully manages your system to produce well strategized, high impact email campaigns for your business.

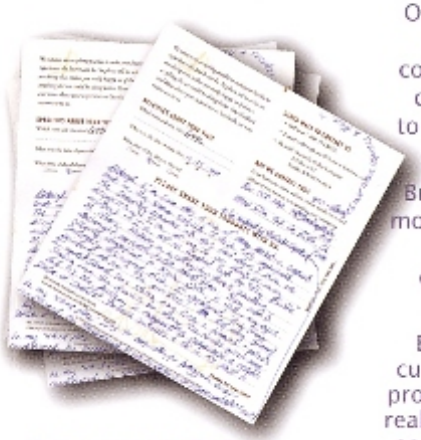
You need time to manage your entire business, not just some D-I-Y email system. That's why successful business owners turn to BizGrader.

To this.

Eye-popping graphics, included.

Got the Comment Card Blues?

You know there's great info in there, but how do you get it out???



One of the key ingredients to success is to constantly monitor your customer's experience to identify improvement opportunities.

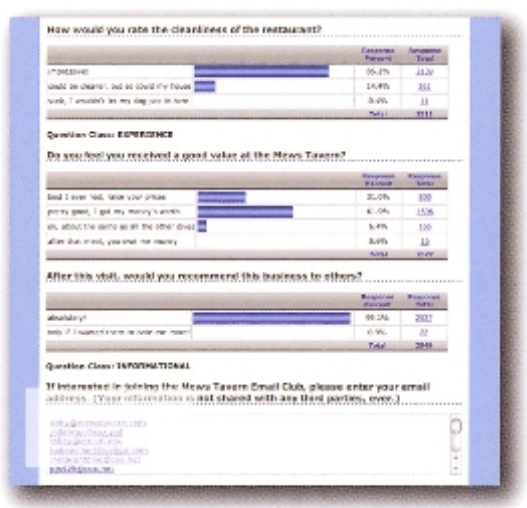
But the big problem for most business owners is how to tabulate their customer's comments into useful reports.

BizGrader's integrated customer survey system provides clients detailed, realtime reports they can access 24/7-365 allowing them to monitor and act on their guest's feedback from any internet connection anywhere in the world.

Now that's service!

Turn this...

into this.



Reporting so awesome you'll wonder how you did without it!

Budget-friendly pricing that will leave you smiling.

No email addresses? No Problem!

Building an email list is easy with our customized sign-up cards! These impressive cards are designed to build your brand, increase sign-ups, and they look good, too!

And when you choose our Business Reply Mail option, your cards will come directly to us and we'll upload the information for you!

No other company even comes close to our services!

Turn an ordinary comment card into a business development machine!

Ever hear the saying 'Can't see the forest for the trees?"

Being too close to your business limits what you see, and that's why comment cards WORK!

Each customer visit provides you the opportunity to see your business with a fresh prospective, and in turn, gain valuable ideas on how to 'Keep 'em comin' back!".

BizGrader can create a customized card for your business with questions most important to you, then, uploads and tabulates them for you at no additional charge!

And BizGrader's SurveyAlert system notifies you instantly when a customer gives you a less than stellar review!

No other company does that!
